

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Marisa Crissey, Communications Manager | 678.205.4988 | mcrissey@theswiftschool.org

Roswell, GA – May 4, 2018 – The mission of Swift School is to prepare children with dyslexia and related language-based learning differences to be successful in life. This time of year is very exciting for the students, faculty and staff as high school acceptance letters roll in, proving how Swift is fulfilling that mission.

As the 8th grade students cross the commencement stage on May 22, they will bring the number of Swift graduates to 75. Members of the Swift Class of 2018 have been accepted into the following high schools for the coming year:

Brandon Hall	Mount Vernon Presbyterian School
Cottage School	Prince Avenue Christian Academy (Athens)
Fellowship Christian School	Pope High School
Greater Atlanta Christian School	Riverwood High School
Kings Ridge Christian School	Roswell High School
Mill Springs Academy	St. Francis School
Mount Pigsah Christian School	The Walker School

Also this year, Swift's first ever graduating class, the Class of 2014, head off to college. The institutions that graduates will matriculate into include some of the most prestigious universities in the country. They include:

Berry College	The New School
Coastal Carolina University	Northern Arizona University
The College of Charleston	Pace University (NYC) School of Film
Emory University (early decision)	Queen's University
Fort Lewis College	Radford University
High Point University	University of Montana
Johnson and Wales University	U.S. Merchant Marine Academy

Swift School celebrates the successes of its graduates and is proud of the hand the school has played in their educational preparation.

###

Swift School, located in Roswell, Georgia, is a fully accredited independent school providing a holistic education for students with dyslexia and related language-based learning differences in grades one through eight. For more information, visit theswiftschool.org.